RCMP investigates series of thefts

by Janice Harrington

Didsbury RCMP are continuing to investigate a series of break and enters and thefts which took place last week in Didsbury and Carstairs.

Four businesses were robbed during the night on both January 7 and 8 by unknown culprits who smashed glass windows and doors to gain entry.

The first theft took place at the Carstairs Co-op Grocery Store in the early morning hours January 7, 1993. RCMP said glass windows were smashed in the store and cigarettes were stolen. No value on the damage or the amount stolen has been released.

A glass door was smashed in for thieves to gain entry to the Carstairs Esso Convenience Store the next night. Windows were also smashed the same night at Didsbury Drugs and the Didsbury IGA.

Cigarettes of an undisclosed amount were taken in all three incidents.

Didsbury RCMP have no suspects in the thefts at this time and are unsure whether the four incidents are related. An investigation is continuing.

Helping spirits

Christmas Helpers came out in droves before Christmas to wrap gifts and pack Christmas Hampers for the less fortunate in Didsbury. Organizers said over 70 hampers were sent out in 1992.

An addition

For something new in this week's Review, look for page 28.

Starting this week, we have added a new feature: Corner of Intellect.

We hope you enjoy this new addition to our paper. Keep watching for further changes!

Thank you

The Didsbury Review would like to thank all of those who purchased gift subscriptions during the month of December.

Part of the money from the purchase of the gift subscriptions was donated to the Christmas Helpers for use in the Christmas Food Hamper project. The total amount donated was over $50.00, and other late gift subscriptions are still coming in.

Again, thank you for your generosity in helping those in Didsbury who were a little less fortunate over the Christmas holiday.

Christmas contest hard to judge

By Janice Harrington

Didsbury Chamber of Commerce officials added another category to this year's Christmas lights decoration contest because of the degree of difficulty they experienced in judging this year's entrants.

Chamber Secretary Lora Lowther said the four local judges: Joyce Mullen, Jean Freeman, Wendy Seymour and Marsha Forth, broke the town category into two parts, small yard and large yard, to help them choose winners in this year's contest.

"They left a little note on the judging sheet," said Lowther. "It just said they had a hard time judging in town because there were so many decorations. That's why they decided on two categories."

The Chamber runs the light decorating contest every Christmas, driving around town looking at outdoor light displays on any house decorated for the season. The judges do the same in the rural areas, but entrants from that area must be registered before they will be judged.

Several of my friends and relatives who appear to be upstanding citizens and respectable members of the community are, in their private lives, slaves to a destructive vice. I think it's time that they admitted and overcame this sick addiction that robs them of their time and energy. I also think that we should have some type of legislation that would limit distribution of the addictive material to consenting adults who are already hooked. I am not asking that it be banned entirely, because that opens up another field for criminal profits in an illegal substance. But some steps should be taken to protect innocent and unwary citizens. I am referring to what has, until now, been an unrecognized evil, crossword puzzles.

Crossword puzzles became part of our culture through an American journalist, Arthur Wynne. Arthur worked on the entertainment supplement of the Sunday edition of the newspaper New York World. One day in Dec. of 1913 he was trying to think of a new game feature when he remembered Magic Square, a word puzzle his grandfather had taught him. Magic Square was a child's game found in British puzzle books and American penny periodicals. In it, a group of words had to be arranged so that the letters read alike vertically and horizontally. There were no crisscrossings and blackened squares and the player was given the words to work with. Wynne created a list of down and across clues and asked that the player find the appropriate word to fit the space.

On December 21, 1913 readers of the New York World were offered the world's first crossword puzzle. It wasn't billed as a new invention or introduced with fanfare, just presented as one of a varied group of "mental exercises." Compared to today's crossword puzzle it was pretty simple with well know words and straight forward clues. The public loved it.

Within months, Wynne's "mental exercise" was picked up by other papers and by the early 1920s every major U.S. paper had its own crossword puzzle. Simon and Schuster published the first book of crossword puzzles, and in 1924, crossword puzzle books held the top 4 on the national best seller list. Booksellers had another bonus, dictionaries were selling better than at any time in history.

By 1925 crossword mania had spread to Britain and soon the puzzles began to appear in almost every language except those like Chinese and Japanese that don't use a letter by letter word construction. In the early 30s women's dresses, shoes, purses, and jewellery were patterned with crossword puzzles and the word "crossword" entered the dictionary as a legitimate word.

In the 79 years since their invention, Crossword Puzzles have become more and more challenging. It is estimated that more than 50 million Americans do crosswords on a regular basis. The record for the longest series of books by one writer, (on any subject) are crossword puzzle books by Margaret Farrar. There were 133 of them written from 1924 to her death in 1984. The largest published crossword ever compiled was by Robert Truot of Quebec. It was 12,489 clues across and 13,125 down and covered 38.28 square feet.

I avoided crossword puzzles for years. "They are frustrating and irritating," I said, "and when you're finished what have you got?" Marie, my sister-in-law and a crossword nut, smiled gently and bided her time.

She began by bringing over the Sunday crossword with 3 or 4 words missing. "You're good with words," she would say, "maybe you can get these last couple of corners." Flattered and gullible I took up the challenge. Soon she was leaving larger and larger corners, and then one terrible day she brought me my own untouched copy and I was plunged into the depths of crossword purgatory.

What in the world is a Turkish Inn? Why would Guido's note be ELA? How does one look up a Swiss Canton? How do I get this monkey off my back?

Christmas collection

Gole & Sons Ltd. helped to fill Christmas Hampers by collecting donations of food. Many businesses and services around Didsbury were also instrumental in helping the project.

Town Council notes

By Janice Harrington

The Didsbury Town Council referred two matters to the Didsbury Recreation Board for consideration at their last council meeting.

One item for the rec board to consider was participation in the Crown Life Participation Challenge for 1993 and the other was in regards to bidding on the 1995 Alberta Summer Games.

Both matters will be considered by the rec board which will present their recommendations to council at a later date.

Two tenders have been accepted by Didsbury Town Council for town operations in 1993.

The first tender was from Esso Petroleum Limited which will now supply gas and diesel fuel for town vehicles. The second tender, from Dumax Resources, was accepted for the supply of lubricants.

Second and third reading was passed by Didsbury Town Council at their last meeting on the rezoning of land east of the motel.

The rezoning is one of the conditions on a development agreement between the Town of Didsbury and Jayda Design Group for the construction of an apartment complex and neighborhood convenience store on the land.

From the council table

By Gayle Veno

Welcome to a new article that the Town Council hopes will help to keep the people of Didsbury and area informed on what is happening around the Council table. Only 2½ months have passed, and already Council members are deep into committee meetings and dealing with a lot of issues.

At the last regular Council meeting of 1992, two resolutions of interest were passed. The first was to make the Town Office a non-smoking building. As soon as the by-law is prepared and approved, this will be in effect. Secondly, a recommendation was approved to hire Mr. Ken Luck as the Director of Recreation & Culture. Ken will be arriving from Fairview, Alberta, on January 11, 1993 to begin his duties in Didsbury. One of the first things to be done will be to hire a head lifeguard to get ready for the grand opening of the pool leisure facility, hopefully sometime in mid-February. We hope through Ken's coordination and direction, and the help of staff and the many devoted volunteers, that recreation and culture will become bigger and better over the years.

In order to make the recreation personnel more accessible and visible to the public, renovations will begin shortly on the existing complex office and small multi-office space. This new office will be for Shawna Krebs, the recreation clerical/program assistant and Ken Luck, the new director. Mr. Owen Clouston will now be the recreation indoor facility's maintenance supervisor with an office space in the arena.

This past week Council met with Mr. Roy Sackett and delegates regarding the fact that they still are planning the construction of an 18 hole golf course, club house, driving range and future housing development. Both parties hope this development will begin sometime in 1993.

On January 5, 1993 Council appointed Mr. Jack Feenstra to the Didsbury Housing Authority and Mr. Donald Connell to the Airport Commission. On this evening, Council also met with a delegation regarding solar aquatic sewage treatment. Council will carefully consider the town engineer's recommendations, plus whether there is any grant money available from the province and the feasibility of such a facility. When we have more information we will let you know.

One item to be decided on the 1993 budget will be the rehiring of a dog catcher. We realize that stray dogs are a problem in Didsbury and it has become worse since there has been no dog catcher in town for awhile.

At this time I would like to personally apologize to the Royal Bank and their customers for some incorrect information I referred to the paper regarding principal/interest/tax mortgages. These mortgages are still being offered and I'm sorry for any inconvenience this may have caused. This is a learning experience to always remember to check out your information.

The new Council hopes this article will help improve the communication between Council and the public. Please remember that communication is a two-way street and let your Council members know if this is working. Till next time.

OPINIONS/EDITORIAL

Home sweet home

By Janice Harrington

I may get locked up in a small rubber room for this one, but I must say it is good to be home.

There's nothing like a vacation in a foreign country to remind a person just how lucky they are to live in Canada. After spending the last two weeks in Mexico, I certainly appreciated coming home, despite the Artic-type weather.

Universal health care, unemployment insurance, clean water systems, housing standards and seniors' care programs here don't seem nearly as riddled with problems as they did before I left.

Neither do our national environmental concerns, crime rates or homelessness problem when you compare Canadian situations to similar ones in Mexico.

Don't think that I didn't enjoy my holiday, the truth is that it was wonderful. The weather was hot, humid and sunny. The beaches covered with white sand and edged by a turquoise blue ocean that feel as warm and soothing as a big bathtub and the scenery was spectacular. But after travelling around to various cities in Mexico and witnessing sights I have never seen in Canada, I have certainly learned to appreciate what my home has to offer. It also gave me another perspective on viewing life on the other side of the tracks. When the weather is this cold and we all moan about how wonderful it would be to live in a tropical paradise instead of this frozen tundra, we have to remember the grass isn't always as green as we imagine.

One of the problems of being away from town for a couple of weeks is that I miss out on all the exciting things happening in Didsbury. If there has been news event or an upcoming event you would like to see in the newspaper, please give me a call at our new office (the phone number is still the same) in the Contemporary Graphics Limited office).

WHAT ARE TYPO BUGS?

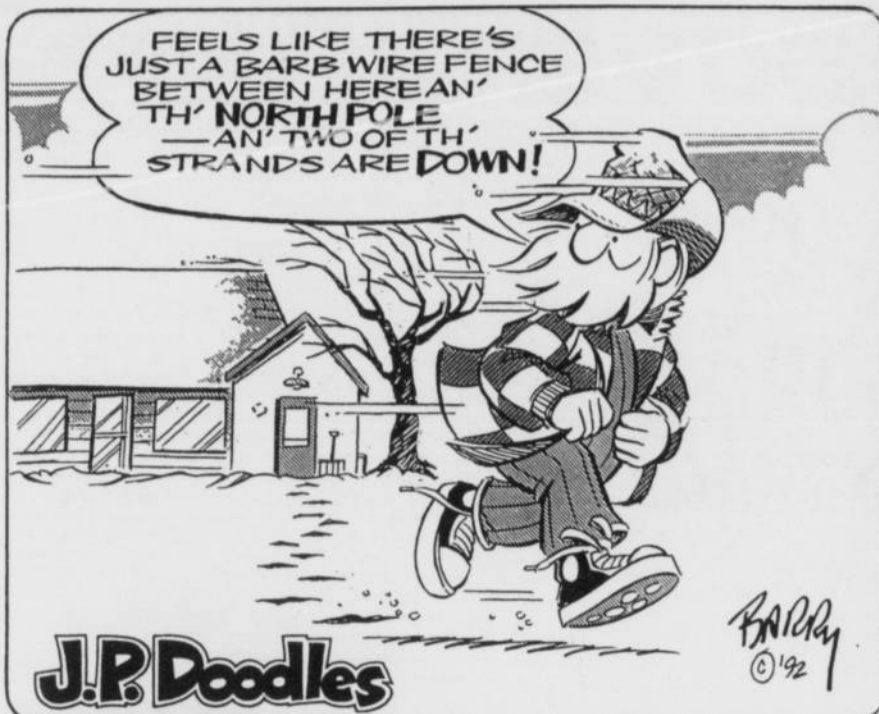

They are microscopic bugs that get on the type. They move around the letters, they even go so far as to eat some of them.

Occasionally they eat half of a letter but they have been known to eat one or two whole ones.

These bugs live in the typesetting machine where they do their dirty work.

We are doing our best to keep these bugs under control but occasionally they slip by us. Please accept our apologies for any inconvenience they may have caused.

Great job Didsbury

Dear Editor:

Through the gracious giving of the Didsbury residents, local service clubs, and businesses, the past holiday season was made a time to be remembered for our less fortunate friends and neighbors.

As one of the coordinators of the "92" Christmas Helpers, I was again impressed at the unselfish giving and the creativity of people as we worked as a team to provide for our neighbors.

Didsbury truly is a great place to live and as an original Didsbury resident, I am proud of our town. With the help of a great many volunteers wrapping gifts, sorting food and packing boxes, the job of making 85 hampers was made easier. The Spirit of Christmas was evident as the group worked side by side, each doing his or her part to see the job completed. The cooperation of all ages was a great witness to all present that when we work together a large, almost impossible job, can be done with ease.

On behalf of those who coordinated the program and those who received the baskets, I would like to express my sincere appreciation to all who helped in any way, from the givers to the workers. To one and all I wish you the best in 1993.

Yours truly,
Linda Sirt,
Didsbury

Christmas spirit shown

Dear Editor:

Once again the Didsbury residents and business owners should be proud of their Christmas spirit. The Community Christmas Dinner, through their efforts and the volunteers, had a successful Christmas Day. Because of the Elks and their contribution of the Elks Hall, Betty driving the Handi-Bus for the day, Noel Wygiera who played Santa Claus, Paul for singing for us, and all of the volunteers who showed up to help along the way. Thank you to the Mount View Health Care Staff for their generous donation.

We can say we are proud to be living in the town we do, because of all of the love shown through this season, 54 people, men, women, and children, and some shut-ins, were able to enjoy a wonderful meal and spend some time with others.

We thank you and look forward to organizing a Christmas dinner in 1993.

TV violence related to rape and murder

A 14-year-old Quebec girl, Virginie Lariviere, whose sister was raped and murdered a year ago, recently presented a 1.3 million name petition against TV violence to Prime Minister Brian Mulroney. He signed the petition, said there is a link between violence on TV and violence in society, and that the government could introduce legislation against it.

Mr. Keith Spicer, CRTC chairman, agrees television can desensitize us, and to his credit, has asked the Canadian Association of Broadcasters to cut down on TV violence. So far there has been no noticeable change.

The government of Canada and the CRTC have not been so lenient with some other issues. Anyone who makes statements on air of "hatred or contempt based on sexual preference," is subject to a fine of up to $25,000. The fine is outrageous, and the law a gross violation of free speech. Only the bravest would dare say anything about deviant sexual behaviour under such circumstances.

The CRTC has consistently refused to give licenses to four Alberta broadcasters because their programs are exclusively Christian. This time the fine, unless they quit broadcasting, is $250,000 a day. Ottawa wants to cut down on TV violence, and at the same time suppress programs that discourage violence. They would rather legislate against hate, and force people by law to love one another. It isn't working and it won't.

We can't lay all the blame on the government for TV violence. Part of the problem is an apathetic public. A Texas dentist found a better way. He didn't like the raw sex on the Donahue show, so he started a one-man campaign. He succeeded in getting 65 sponsors to withdraw their advertising dollars. The people have the final say!

MOVING INTO THE GLOBAL MARKET

Louise Feltham
Wild Rose M.P.

James Gillies, the Executive Editor of InsideGuide, began his discussion of Corporate Strategies 1993 in an interesting manner. He said, Canada is a trading nation but it is not a nation traders. Most of our trade is based on commodities and commodities are bought--not sold. Our business people have not had to rush around the globe selling their products. He believes that this must change.

I believe that this is starting to change, many business people, especially in agriculture, have recognized the need to market around the world. In Wild Rose, many livestock producers ship purebred cattle and cattle semen all over the world. For example, ALTA GENETICS deals in live cattle, embryos and biotechnology for both beef and dairy cattle. In 1992 they shipped over 3,000 embryos to the U.S., Australia, New Zealand, South America, Europe, and the former U.S.S.R.--over 50 countries. This entails hard work; the directors of these companies travel about 10 months of the year.

Another Western success story is a building firm, known originally as a manufacturer of agricultural storage buildings, that recognized the opportunities in Eastern Europe. This company became the first Canadian company to build a hotel in the former Soviet Union; it now has contracts to renovate three hotels. (The contracts were awarded two months after the initial bid, payment was fully insured in U.S. currency and the company is allowed to repatriate all of its profits.) It has a workforce of 150; in 1991 it had sales of $20 million.

Governments (provincial and federal) do support businesses seeking markets abroad, creating a consolidated effort to increase Canada's share of the global market. However, the business people interested in international information must initiate contact. The federal department responsible for providing information is the Department of External Affairs and International Trade.

Increases in Canada Pension

On January 1, 1993, benefits increased for over 2.8 million Canada Pension Plan recipients. The 1992 annual adjustment, was 1.8 percent, was based on increases in the Consumer Price Index, Statistics Canada's cost-of-living measure.

There will also be increases for people who become eligible for Canada Pension Plan benefits in 1993. These rates are increased each year to keep benefits in line with general increases in salaries and wages.

For those who become eligible for benefits in 1993, the maximum monthly retirement pension at age 65 will be $667.36. Contributors may choose to begin receiving their retirement pension as early as age 60 or as late as age 70. Depending on the option chosen, amounts will be reduced for pensions beginning before age 65, and will be increased for those beginning after age 65.

The maximum payment for a person becoming eligible for a disability pension in 1993 will be $812.85 per month, while benefits for children of disabled contributors and orphans of deceased contributors will be $157.48 per month, per child.

Maximum benefits paid on behalf of contributors who die in 1993 will be $372.11 for surviving spouses under age 65 and $400.42 for surviving spouses aged 65 and over.

The maximum lump sum death benefit payable in respect of contributors who die in 1993 will be $3,340.

Canada Pension Plan benefits are based on a person's earnings for the period during which that person could have contributed to the Plan. There are yearly minimum and maximum earning levels between which people contribute. For 1993 these levels are $3,300 and $33,400 respectively. Employees will contribute a maximum of $752.50 during 1993; the maximum employer's contribution is the same amount and self-employed persons will contribute a maximum of $1,505.

Old age pensions rise in January

The new rate for the federal Old Age Security pension, paid to people 65 years old and over, will be $378.95 per month from January to March 1993. This is an increase of $0.76 per month over the previous quarter.

Other benefits will also increase for the January to March 1993 period. The maximum Guaranteed Income Supplement (GIS) will increase to $450.34 (from $449.44) per month for a single person and for a married person whose spouse does not receive the Old Age Security pension or a Spouse's Allowance. For each married person whose spouse also receives an Old Age Security pension and for a married person whose spouse receives a Spouse's Allowance, the maximum will increase to $293.34 (from $292.75) per month.

The maximum Spouse's Allowance (SPA), paid to people between 60 and 64 with a limited income who are married to GIS recipients, will be $672.29 (up from $670.94) per month.

The maximum Widowed Spouse's Allowance (WSPA), paid only to low-income widowed persons aged 60 to 64 who reside in Canada and meet the basic residence requirements, will be $742.20 (up from $740.71) per month.

The Old Age Security Act provides for benefit increases every three months by a factor based on increases in the Consumer Price Index (CPI), Statistics Canada's cost-of-living measure.

Megabytes finds new home

These days, it's often difficult to find a company strong enough to withstand torrential economic times. Until Megabyte Solutions, that is.

For those of you who find a familiar ring to the name, that's because they have been around for awhile. For just over a year, Megabytes was actually based out of Carstairs.

Lack of what volume sales in that community, however, has lead partial stakeholder Pete Johnson, along with John Fujimigari and Laurie Smithies to their new outlet in Didsbury.

"We did a little survey of our own," Johnson explains, "and discovered that only 25 per cent of Carstairs residents actually shop in that community. In Didsbury, 90 per cent of residents here shop in town. Those are tough figures to beat."

By early December, Megabyte Solutions was ready to open its doors, and services, to Didsbury. Packing an array of satellite and computer systems, supplies, services and information resources, along with 60 years experience between the three stakeholders, there has been no turning back.

"We are here for the long run," says Johnson. "We are all local people interested investing our time and energy into a company we believe in."

Megabytes are authorized dealers for a large selection of IBM compatible software and hardware... but that's not all. Johnson says they also carry other varieties of computer equipment such as Macintosh and those used in cash register systems in supermarkets and drugstores. "We also train people on the computer systems with which we deal. We take our clients through the entire process of learning how to properly operate a computer right from the on/off switch to Wordperfect 5.1."

Johnson says the problem with computer skeptics is fear. "We are here to make people more familiar with the concept of owning or operating their own computer. A lot of people are afraid to even touch the keyboard because they think they'll break something. It's unfortunate because we live in a society where everything is becoming more and more automated, there's no getting out of it, computers are becoming a necessity, not a luxury."

Since opening their doors at Megabyte's new 2018 - 17th Ave. location, Johnson says the response from the public has been overwhelming. "It's better than we expected. We just started a project working with the County to network some of the schools in town so they can share information more easily."

Additional services include custom-designed software programs and specialized clinics to help the novice, or not-so-novice enthusiast set up and troubleshoot various computer programs.

Although Johnson says Megabytes is more or less bounded by the level of success experienced so far since opening their doors in Didsbury, future aspirations for expanding their services even further is not out of the question. "We have been giving a bit of thought to maybe introducing some bulletin board systems or group seminars, but that's still a bit in the future."

For now, Johnson, Fujima-gari, and Smithies are content offering their customers the integrity in product and perform-

CDC Group Inc. in Olds can help you write your own success story!

The company offers a self-employment course that enables participants to learn how to contract themselves to an employer or to start their own businesses.

Success stories from their last training session range from a 'brew your own beer' centre (Just Brew It, Vernon, B.C.) to an 'odd jobs' enterprise (Enterprises for Handicapped Albertans, Olds, Alberta).

Each individual has access to business counselling on a one-on-one basis. Each student also learns to set up a business plan and record keeping system designed to meet their individual needs. They learn how to market and prospect their business or personal abilities.

Other successes include students who have established a cement pouring business, a printing company, a market garden, a pet sitting service, and a homemade muffins business. One student has a market garden enterprise, another a computer supply company, while another now works with CDC Group Inc. as an employment counsellor.

Locally known, Fisherman's Daughter Seafood Company, is a "graduate" of CDC Group Inc.'s program.

The last program had 18 enrollees, of the 18, 17 are now employed or working with their own business.

West Didsbury 4-H news

By Ryan Konschuh

On December 7, 1992, the West Didsbury 4-H club held its second meeting of the season at Melvin Hall. Sarah Aurther called the meeting to order. We discussed our old business from our first meeting.

The horse people and the beef people separated into two groups. The club thanks Gord Krebs for talking about diseases and treatment for cattle. The club also thanks Corrine Allison for coming to talk to the horse people of the club.

The club set a date for the beef weigh day, November 22, 10 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at Mike and Sharon Barr's, but due to bad weather conditions it was cancelled, and rescheduled for the same time at the same place on November 29. The club thanks Mike and Sharon Barr for the time and also for their facilities.

On December 6, 1992, the club held its annual Christmas party, but because we did not have enough snow to go tobogganing out at the hill we went skating on the Little Red and then we later went up to the Elkton Hall to have roast beef on a bun and hot chocolate. Everyone brought some sort of dessert after this delicious meal. We thank Sharon Israelson for the beef and the buns. The club thanks the Hogg family for hosting this successful Christmas party.

On January 2, 1993, the club had its annual Bottle and Battery Pick-Up Day. We give thanks to all of the people who gave bottles and batteries towards our successful fundraiser.

On Sunday, January 17, 1993, the West Didsbury 4-H Club will host the annual Funspiel. All of the 4-H members from the County of Mountain View 4-H district are invited.

On Saturday, January 16, 1993 the annual club public speaking workshop will be held. It will be held at Westglen School with Rob Smith as our instructor. Horse members will be having a bridle and saddle cleaning workshop. It will be held on Friday, January 22, 1993.

AGRICULTURAL NEWS

Agricultural courses help farmers

Olds College has done it again! The Extension Services Department has just come up with a way to save you time and allow you to gain valuable information on the dynamics of the agricultural industry.

Beginning this January and running at various periods until March, over 10 new Short Course Agricultural Training sessions will be introduced to the Drumheller, Hanna, and Oyen areas.

The courses run between 20-30 hours in length and focus on a wide range of management, production, and equipment operation and maintenance skills.

Olds College's Project Coordinator of Agricultural Mechanics, Ed Shaw, is enthused about the selection of topics being made available through the short sessions. The courses are being funded through the Canada Employment and Immigration Centre in Drumheller and include the following: Farmstead Utilities, Small Engine Repair, Air Conditioning, Electrohydraulics, Introduction to Farm Welding, Advanced Welding (Project Welding), Used Equipment Appraisal, Tractor Tune-Up, Basic Carpentry, Introduction to Machinery Hydraulics, and Cow/Calf Production.

"I think we have the perfect combination of services to offer farmers," says Shaw. "No longer do they have to obtain all their information from an equipment dealer or supplier. It's an ideal experience for anyone looking for solid, thorough knowledge on technological advancements being made."

Shaw adds another benefit to offering a short course format is flexibility. Individuals working in the livestock sector do not always have time to take a two year leave to attend a post-secondary institution. Short courses that cover the fundamental disciplines in such areas as the cow/calf industry, for example, are still able to offer the producer a good foundation to build upon at a later date if they so choose.

Subject material related in each short course session provides not only the most up-to-date information available, but also follows applicable government safety standards and codes of practice. "This is especially true of our Air Conditioning and Welding courses. Our instructors ensure that once the participant completes either of these courses, they are fully cognizant of all the guidelines and restrictions that surround that particular industry. It is a responsibility our instructors are adamant about incorporating into this program," Shaw comments.

Shaw points out that completing a short course does not necessarily have to mean the end of an agricultural learning experience. He reminds farmers and producers that the background information and special skills introduced can be enhanced with additional courses or programs available through Olds College.

If you would like to find out more about any one of the Short Course Agricultural Training sessions being offered in the new year, please contact Olds College's Agricultural Mechanics Project Coordinator, Ed Shaw, at (403) 556-8236, or call the Big Country Educational Consortium (B.C.E.C.) at (403) 823-3365.

New murals add character

The College Cafeteria has a new look! Thanks to the efforts of local artist and part-time Fashion Instructor, Ruth Jepson, a shining new series of murals are now on display at the Frank Grisdale Hall Residence Cafeteria.

The project, jointly funded through Beaver Foods, Residence Council, and Olds College, features scenes from numerous areas and around campus.

"I got the idea to design something for the facility after noticing that there were exactly eight arches on the wall with absolutely nothing inside of them," Jepson explained. "I just thought at the time how nice it would be if people had something to look at instead of blank wall space . . . something that everyone could relate to, no matter what their position was or what classes they attended."

The murals, she says, are intended to capture the "life" of Olds College through the depiction of staff, faculty, and students. As an added personal touch, portraits of individuals presently attending or working on campus were included in some of the mural themes.

The design and finish of the murals took Jepson about eight days to sketch at the Didsbury studio and another two weeks to paint and hang in the cafeteria. "I had to use this special kind of latex paint for the lighter colors and a water-based paint to do the darker tones before spraying the entire design with a fixative," she explained.

Campus Life Manager, Alvin Moore, is impressed with the way the community is responding to the new murals. "Comments from the students, especially, have really been great. We had one girl, for example, who was in the process of showing her parents around campus. They made a special trip to the cafeteria just so she could show them the new murals we put up. It's a real moral booster when you see something like that happen. It's something we need more of."

This is not the first time Jepson has graced the hallways of Olds College with her artwork. Last fall, an entire history of costume design was unveiled on the hallway walls of Olds College's Duncan Marshall Place. The 19 life-size wooden silhouette murals were designed not only to visually enhance the appearance of DMP, but to also serve as teaching aids in the Fashion Merchandising and Production Program. The silhouettes display fashions dating back from pre-historic times right up to the present.

Jepson says the concept behind creating a "self-portrait of Olds College" is easily carried through to other facilities on campus. "It wouldn't be difficult to paint murals in other areas and at other facilities . . . this particular project went along so well. Everyone backed me right away--the college, Residence Council, students, and Beaver Foods--with that kind of support, it would be pretty difficult to have said no."

Farm benefits in budget

Three items related to tax credits, unemployment insurance and home buying in the recent federal mini-budget will be of particular interest to farmers says an Alberta Agriculture farm business tax specialist.

"These three items are actually good news," says Paul Gervais of the farm business management branch in Olds.

A temporary 10 per cent non-refundable small business investment tax credit is available for eligible machinery and equipment acquired after December 2, 1992 and before December 31, 1993.

"This tax credit is applied against federal income tax to reduce the amount of tax paid," says Gervais. "The tax credit can be carried forward 10 years or carried back three years."

Individual farmers, partnerships and farm corporations are eligible for this tax credit. The exception is large farm corporations subject to the large corporation tax.

Machinery and equipment eligible for this investment tax credit will be the same as in a similar program in place before 1987 with some exceptions. Buildings, grain bins, trucks under 26,001 pounds gross vehicle weight, automobiles and leased property aren't eligible for this tax credit. "But most other farm machinery and equipment will qualify," Gervais says.

Also part of the economic and fiscal statement was an unemployment insurance (U.I.) premium holiday for employers hiring additional workers in 1993. The federal government will pay the 1993 employer share of any additional unemployment insurance premiums up to a maximum of $30,000.

"Effectively, this caps U.I. premium costs at 1992 levels for any small business expanding its labour force in 1993," says Gervais. "Employee premiums will be unchanged."

Any incorporated or unincorporated business whose employer share of U.I. premiums in 1992 was less than $60,000 will be eligible. "This means many farms and agribusinesses could qualify," notes Gervais. As well, anyone starting a new business in 1993 and hiring more workers will also benefit from this program he adds.

As well, the Home Buyers' Plan was extended to March 1, 1994. This plan allows people to withdraw up to $20,000 from their registered retirement savings plans (RRSPs) to buy a home. "This may be of interest to any farm family planning to build a new home," notes Gervais.

The RRSP must be repaid in equal installments over a 15 year period. Gervais adds if funds are withdrawn before March 2, 1993, the home must be purchased before October 1, 1993.

More details and application forms are available at Revenue Canada district taxation offices.

Olds town manager greets 1993

By Elaine Wilson

Town manager John Van Doesburg carved a few minutes out of his hectic schedule as the town staff geared up for 1993 to discuss what the Town of Olds has to offer and how improvements can be made.

"It's really a good place for families," Van Doesburg pointed out. "There isn't the level of crime or violence here that you find in other communities in the province. I don't have to worry as town manager that the arena will be vandalized. We do have break-ins in the town, but here, they're exceptions to the rule, not an everyday occurrence. After my first month here, I came home from a council meeting [in July, 1992], there was a new house being built in Balsam Crescent. It was around nine o'clock at night. I drove around to see how it was coming. All the supplies for the house were sitting on the lawn. I was going to throw all of it in the back of my car to keep them safe for the guy, because I'd never seen that done. Anyplace else, if you'd done that, everything would have been gone that next morning. I left everything there and phoned the building inspector. He laughed and told me, 'It's not a problem, everybody does that in this town.' That was something that was really refreshing to see."

"We've got a new council, and it's a good combination of people," Van Doesburg noted. "We want to keep being service orientated. We're trying to give the 'best bang for the buck' that we can for the citizens."

He advised that town employees look to residents for guidance and assistance.

"When you're working with a community of 6,000 people you're not going to be able to get everyone to agree on one thing. We have to do what we feel is best, and hope that the majority of the citizens agree with those decisions."

"A lot of times it may appear that we're not doing anything, but often we weren't aware of the situation. The best thing to do is come in or phone the town office, tell us the situation, and let us know how we can help, so no one gets frustrated," Van Doesburg said. "I guess what we ask, is that people have some patience."

95 to 99% of the people are really good to work with. They phone up to ask questions or tell us what's happening. They help us out by pointing out problems before they happen."

"It can be hectic," Van Doesburg said, "there are days I go home wondering why I'd want to do this, but then there are days when you see things getting done, and you get some positive feedback, and it's great."

"People always respond better to positive than negative," Van Doesburg said, relating a story of a woman who lived in Sherwood Park, where he was employed several years ago. "This woman would always bake cookies for the public works crew."

She'd write letters to council praising the service she got for her tax dollar. She had guys shoveling snow off her walk before they went to work. They did it on their own time. She knew the truth of the saying, 'You catch more flies with honey' than vinegar.' We've got excellent staff members working for the Town of Olds. We expect criticism sometimes, sometimes we do things wrong, but everybody likes a pat on the shoulder. Everybody works better that way."

Truck tanker spills

At approximately 8:00 p.m., January 7, 1993, a semi-trailer truck slid into the ditch on a rural roadway approximately 6.5 kms north and 16 kms west of Sundre, Alberta. The truck was turning into the driveway of a tank storage area when the mishap occurred. The tanker unit of the truck ruptured spilling a portion of its contents, 32-34 cubic meters of sour oil containing H₂S condensate. The truck operated by a private operator was hauling product for AMOCO Canada Petroleum Co. Ltd.

Snow covered roads were slippery at the time, yet there was no danger to public safety and no one was injured in the mishap.

The ERCB is monitoring clean up.

CREMONA/WATER VALLEY NEWS

Meals on wheels increasing

By Kathy Parsons

Cremona Meals on Wheels began delivering meals to village residents in November of 1989 and expanded its service to include rural residents in December of 1990.

This past year 713 meals were delivered in and out of town and it shows a significant increase in the number of meals delivered the previous year.

Gail Oldfield, a board member of the Meals on Wheels committee, feels the increase is due to greater awareness of the program. "More and more people are getting to know about us and so we are seeing more people sign up," she says.

Developing the rural program has been a challenge and a great deal of fundraising was done to get it going. The first year of rural meals was made possible through generous donations from local groups and an auction.

Last year the rural program received some assistance from the County FCSS and along with donations and charging more for the rural meals, the board managed to keep the program going.

To get Meals on Wheels local seniors must be approved by the local health nurse. The board of directors does not get involved in the application process because it is highly confidential and the health nurse is the one who is trained to evaluate each circumstance. "All our clients come from the health nurse," says Oldfield, "we just see they get the meals."

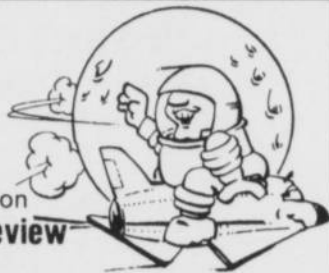

A dedicated force of volunteers deliver the rural meals and most in town residents go to the Hawk's Nest Inn, where the meals are prepared. "We've actually encouraged them to go to the restaurant for their meals because it enhances their social life as well. It gives them a chance to get out of the house and see people," says Oldfield.

The past years increase is good news to the Meals on Wheels committee. "It shows we are providing a valuable service," says Oldfield, "and we believe we will see another increase this year. I know there are many out there who really need this service."

Oldfield also believes that some seniors resist taking Meals on Wheels because they don't want to burden anyone or take a hand out. However, she contends that it's far less of a burden than having to find space in already overtaxed seniors homes and the increased health costs resulting from improper nutrition. Recipients also pay for the service - $2.00 per meal in town and $4.00 per meal in the rural areas.

"The premise behind our service is to keep seniors at home and healthy. That's the best solution for everyone," says Oldfield.

CARSTAIRS NEWS

Carstairs decoration winners

The Carstairs Chamber of Commerce has announced the winners from its 1992 Christmas lights decoration contest. The winners were as follows:

Town - first place - Rhonda Niessen, honorable mention - Wes Hurlburt.

Rural - first place - Glen & Carla Morash, honorable mention - Greg & Sandra Jochems and Keith & Maxine Walroth.

Chamber President Bob Krotner said the Chamber was impressed with the number of Christmas light displays, noting those on Idaho Street and surrounding area especially.

The Didsbury Review is looking for a correspondent to cover new stories and events in the Carstairs area. If you are interested, please send a resume' with some samples of your writing to: The Didsbury Review, P.O. Box 760, Didsbury, Alberta, T0M 0W0.

Cremona minor hockey

By Ryan Robertson

Suddenly it is 1993. With the changing of years comes the awareness that we are now in mid-stream of our season.

The recent cold snap and plenty of snow give us all the backdrop we need to realize that this is still afterall hockey weather.

I was fortunate to see the Atom B's first game, this year, this past Saturday. The opposition was Crossfield and the two teams clashed to a very entertaining 2-2 draw. In this one the teams we closely matched and good efforts were put forth. Scoring for Cremona were Clayton and Jeff Backstrom. A solid goaltending job was performed by Denton Edge in the Cremona Nets. Since being re-aligned the team has not lost. Keep up the great work!

Hats off to our Midget team who had a tremendous effort in the recent Nova Cup tournament in Carstairs! The team is playing great hockey so plan to take in some of their games.

Our Novice B team returns to league play on Saturday, January 9 at home against Olds at 9 a.m.

The remainder of the teams are gearing up as well, so here we go, another year, and the wheels are beginning to turn again.

Happy New Year everyone!

Christmas light winners

By Daisy L. Sullivan

The Christmas Light Displays were again beautiful in the Village of Cremona, especially in the residential area.

The many folks who drove in and about the village enjoyed these colorful displays.

A team of volunteers were asked to select winners in two classes as "Residential" and "Business-Commercial" and they are as follows:

Residential: 1. Gordon & Jennifer Osborne; 2. Cameron & Norma Bracken and 3. Gordon MacMillan. Honorable Mentions:

Ken Naidoo, Boyd Osborne, and Gerald Plante.

Business-Commercial: 1. Cremona Hardware & Variety; 2. Cremona General Store; 3. Hawksnest Inn. Congratulations to all!

The Chamber of Commerce would like to thank the team of volunteers who went out and viewed these displays.

They informed us that this wasn't an easy task but they found it to be a most interesting one.

Happy New Year to all.

Five-0 notes

The first schedule of carpet bowling has been completed. The new teams will be drawn and the second schedule will begin in mid-January.

A Soup and Sandwich Day will be held January 20 from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at a cost of $3.00 per person. The rest of the afternoon will be the regular cards or games or carpet bowling, etc.

Memberships for 1993 are now due. They are available from Edith Luft, Ethel Rheinhard or Ted Topping! Best wishes for a great 1993!

The Advisory Committee to the Energy Resources Conservation Board Reviewing...

Public Safety and Sour Gas

We invite Albertans to tell us their concerns and ideas about the safety of the province's sour gas industry, and to help us to identify the issues..

About the review process...

In mid-November 1992, the Energy Resources Conservation Board (ERCB) launched a process to review current safety measures for Alberta's sour gas facilities. An essential part of this effort is to solicit, review and evaluate public concerns.

About the Advisory Committee...

- Our purpose as a multi-stakeholder group is to evaluate existing sour gas setback regulations and other relevant public safety issues and make recommendations to the ERCB.
- Our committee is made up of people from industry, government, municipalities and the public-at-large.
- In the event of an accidental sour gas release we seek a level of public safety that is acceptable to the public and allows for a viable economy.

About your input...

- we want direct input from Albertans: your views in your own words, and as brief as you care to make it.
- tell us any concerns and ideas you have about accidental sour gas releases especially in relation to the adequacy of setback distances.
- tell us your ideas for protecting public safety before, during and after an accidental sour gas release

Send your submission by February 5, 1993 to:

Mr. Chris Goodman
Facilitator

Hospital Volunteer news

The first meeting of the new year of the Hospital Volunteers was held Thursday, January 7, in the Assembly Room of the Nursing Home with the president, Hazel Milne, in the chair.

Joyce Nolin, Director of Nursing for the Auxiliary Hospital, was present to outline the changes that will be taking place January 18. There will be three respite rooms that can be furnished to make them more home-like. The Volunteers have purchased an easy chair for one and have decided to get a small television for it. Nolin explained that the word "respite" is pronounced re (with a short "e") with an accent on the first syllable viz. re-spite. The room is for the short time use of persons who are being cared for at home in order to allow the care-giver some respite.

The annual meeting will be held Thursday, Feb. 4 and invitations to clubs who support the Volunteer programs are being sent out. Reports of the activities of the year will be given and Helen Brown will show some pictures of Rome. Committee in charge: Dora Johnson, Ann Jepps, Gwladys Bogner and Helen Brown.

The appreciation supper honoring the gift shop volunteers will be held March 8 at the Five-O Centre. The committee in charge consists of Annie Pringle, Frieda Derksen, and Gwladys Bogner.

Helen Brown presented the Sunday Singing Schedule for the year. There are still many undesignated Sundays and any groups wanting to serve in this capacity are welcome to do so.

Contact Helen Brown at 335-4807. Groups should note that they are to come to the Nursing Home first at 3:00 p.m. and to the Auxiliary Hospital at 3:30 p.m.

Hazel Milne outlined how volunteer hours should be counted and gave a reading entitled "Volunteers Are Special."

Lunch was served by Helen Brown.

RCMP report

The cold weather months of winter have finally descended upon us and along with winter comes those precarious road conditions. Bad road conditions usually means an increase in motor vehicle accidents. Accidents must be reported to the police if the damage is greater than $1,000.00. This means that if one vehicle received $500.00 damage and the second vehicle received $600.00 damage, the total damage is greater than $1,000.00 and must be reported. Hit and run accidents and any injury accidents must also be reported. There is no doubt that accidents happen. During these winter months, try to slow down and be a defensive driver. This will reduce the amount of fender benders in the community and keep insurance rates down.

Didsbury R.C.M.P. responded to a total of 144 complaints between December 13 and December 26, 1992. Of these, 16 were motor vehicle accidents, one of which resulted in injuries. Thirteen traffic tickets, 18 written warnings and 3 liquor control act tickets were issued. One person was charged with impaired driving and 15 criminal code related files were opened.

Jackson W.I. news

Our Christmas meeting was held on December 17. A blizzard was forecasted but other than being extremely cold, it was a fine day.

Marguerite Krebs, our hostess, had decorated her home for Christmas and chose "Jingle Bells" as our opener. We, then, repeated our creed. Our creed is very meaningful and should be said with full understanding of what we are saying, especially the last line, "Oh, Lord, let us not forget to be kind."

Fourteen members were present to answer to the roll call which was "Show & Tell" our favorite Christmas ornament. Several had been handed down through the generations; several had been handcrafted and angels were the predominate choice.

The minutes were read by secretary Lita Reid and were adopted as read. Then she read a synopsis of our year's activities and these were also adopted as read. Five members had perfect attendance. The treasurer, Marie Olson, gave her report—we are solvent! Happy news to take into the new year.

Joan Foat, presiding at her last meeting as president, thanked all those who had helped at the nursing home tea and also those that had provided the baking. It was Jackson's suggestion, for the home baking at the spring constituency conference, to enter "Biscuits With A Flair."

All members had to submit suggestions for the 1993 agenda or give a speech. Needless to say, everyone had a suggestion for the programs.

We donated monies for the food bank which was evenly divided between Carstairs and Cremona.

The nominating committee offered a new slate which was accepted with no nominations from the floor! Gerda Niehaus agreed to be vice-president; Marie Scott will head up the handicraft; Judy Bellamy will be responsible for education and cultural affairs; and Catharine Reid agreed to the Canadian industries and agricultural conensorship. The education conensors then decided in which month they would present their topic.

Holly Hallett, with help from Noreen Olson and Alice Van Arnam, will make plans for our combined 40th anniversary and husband's party on February 6 at the Cremona Gold & Silver. The membership chose a beef dinner—cattle country—to be catered to by the Olds Bakery.

Holly Hallett presented Joan Foat a A.W.I. mug as a thank you for her term as president. Holly, then presented Noreen Olson and Dorothy Odell with their 30 year pins.

Our Christmas program consisted of making boxes out of Christmas cards presented by Noreen Olson; three poems read by Holly Hallett and Elma Bird presided over the piano for a Christmas sing song. The piece de resistance was attacky gift exchange. Each gift was tackier than the one preceding it. Great fun!

Lunch consisted of sumptuous Christmas baking.

Happy New Year to all W.I.ers!

Cold calls for caution

If the home you live in has a finned-tube heating boiler -- have it checked. Make sure it's not producing carbon monoxide. It's particularly important while our heating systems are working overtime to beat this Alberta cold spell.

Finned-tube boilers are typically used in hot water heating systems and swimming pool heating applications.

If they're not working properly, they can produce carbon monoxide, and that can be lethal.

"Any time you burn something - wood, oil, natural gas or propane - there's a chance you're producing carbon monoxide," says Ken Fenning, Chief Inspector with Alberta Labour's plumbing and gas safety division. "Please, make sure that all fuel burning appliances are maintained and serviced regularly. You can't smell carbon monoxide and you can't see it. The best way to protect yourself and your family is through prevention. And that means regular checks and maintenance."

The fins in the boiler are susceptible to condensation. When that condensation dries, it forms oxides; a white, green or black powder. If left unchecked, this can build up and eventually restrict the flow of combustion products through the fins. That could produce deadly carbon monoxide.

Common symptoms of carbon monoxide poisoning include dizziness, confusion and headache. As it builds up in the body, victims feel nauseous and eventually they lose consciousness.

Recently a finned-tube boiler was responsible for a severe build up of the lethal gas in an Alberta home. No one was seriously injured, but the situation has prompted the head of Alberta Labour's plumbing and gas safety division to issue this alert.

"These boilers work very well if they're properly installed and maintained," says Fenning. "But, it is the responsibility of the home owner to make sure that maintenance is done on a regular basis by a qualified person."

Fenning stresses that inspecting, servicing, and cleaning a finned-tube heating boilers is not a job for the home handy-person.

Rehearsals nearing completion

Rehearsals for our upcoming production, "White Sheep of the Family" are nearing completion. This British comedy is a first for "Spotlite" as up until now, and as most of our patrons will know, our focus has been musical theatre--"Oklahoma", "Oliver" and "Anything Goes" to name a few.

"Sheep" as we affectionately call it, will be presented in Olds, January 22, 23, 24 and 29 and 30, 1993 at Deer Meadow School. Another first is that the January 24 performance will be a matinee (something else for Dad to do on Sunday afternoon other than watching NFL football!) and children 12 years and under will be admitted at $5.00 each provided they are accompanied by an adult. Ticket prices otherwise are $8.00 excepting that we are planning a dinner theatre for the January 30th performance at $20/head. Rather than selling at a sales office, tickets are available at Olds Value Drug Mart, Didsbury Drugs or by calling Ronnie at 335-9308 or Clare 335-4738.

Our spring show, "Cinderella Meets the Wolfman" will be performed May 26, 27, 28 and 29, again at Deer Meadow School. We will be advertising for a director soon and auditions will be held shortly thereafter. Stay tuned.

Lottery increases in sales

The final figures are in and Western Canada Lottery Corporation (WCLC) released its financial report for 1991/92 showing sales of $580.5 million, a 4.9% increase.

"Lottery products continue to perform well," commented Garth Manness, President of WCLC. "New advertising strategies for games such as LOTTO 6/49 and the introduction of games such as Over/Under and POGO have helped to keep our product mix fresh and entertaining."

"Our mandate has been met," continued Mr. Manness. "223.9 million has been returned to our member provinces and territories as revenue." (WCLC is comprised of Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Yukon and Northwest Territories).

The popularity of LOTTO 6/49 continued unabated as sales reached $301.9 million. INSTANT sales were next at $107.7 million, followed by THE PLUS at $53.1 million. Sports enthusiasts have helped make the SPORT SELECT product line the fastest growing initiative, with sales of $47.4 million. Rounding out sales were WESTERN EXPRESS at $27.5 million, POGO at $20.8 million, PROVINCIAL at $11.5 million, SPECIAL EVENT at $7.6 million and DAILY DEAL at $3.8 million.

The efficiency of WCLC allows for a mere 8.6 cents of every dollar spent on a lottery ticket going towards operating expenses.

Mountain View La Leche League news

The Mountain View La Leche League will meet on Thursday, Jan. 14 at 10:30 a.m. at the Didsbury ECS portable, 21 Ave. and 21 St., Didsbury. This month's topic will be "Advantages of Breastfeeding to Mother and Baby."

One important advantage of breastfeeding is the protection breastmilk provides against illness. Breastfed babies have less diarrhea, vomiting, ear infections, and fewer hospital admissions. A breastfeeding mother manufactures antibodies against the germs that threaten her baby and passes them on to the child through her milk. Breastmilk also contains living cells that act against bacteria in the baby's stomach. Thus any illness that baby does contract is short lived.

All women who are interested in nursing their babies are invited, as are their children.

The group offers an extensive lending library of books on childbirth, childcare, and breastfeeding, including the manual "The Womanly Art of Breastfeeding."

Rambler defense as cold as winter

One could hardly blame Coach Alan McCoy if he was to send out an "S.O.S." to Mother Nature for a break in the cold spell that has gripped the area and apparently the Rambler Hockey Club.

The Rambler Senior Hockey Club dropped its fifth game in a row on Friday evening as they travelled to Innisfail only to be outgunned by a score of 11-8.

The Ramblers have dropped from a first place position at the end of November to a struggling third place in the Chinook Hockey League standings.

The month of December was none too merry for Rambler fans as they have watched their team carry on the Christmas tradition of giving, by allowing opposition forwards to roam at will and score 42 times in the last 5 games.

"We're playing pretty good hockey from an offensive standpoint but we can't keep giving up scoring chances the way that we have been," commented Coach McCoy.

This was evident in the game in Innisfail as the Eagles peppered Rambler goalie Ross Parslow with 52 shots, the majority of which were from directly in front of the net.

The Ramblers started out shaky in the first few minutes but sharp goaltending and specialty team play found them sporting a 4-1 lead after one period of action.

Greg Laveck would start the scoring for the Ramblers as he fired a pass from Jason Krebs past Innisfail goaltender Dusty Pruden at the 6:21 mark of the first frame.

The Ramblers then displayed the offensive capabilities that they have by striking for a shorthanded goal just 3 minutes later as Captain Brent Youngs on assists from Scott Fisher and the sloppy passing of the Innisfail point men made it 2-0 for the visitors.

This combination struck once again on the powerplay as the Ramblers built up a 3-0 lead before the Eagles victimized the powerplay, by scoring a shorthanded marker to narrow the gap to 3-1.

The Ramblers were quick to regroup as they capitalized on the 2 man advantage that they were afforded, when Innisfail winger Al Sim was penalized for cross checking on his first shift of the night at the 16:35 mark.

Left winger Darcy McGuire scored his first of three goals on the evening on a set up from Greg Laveck and the Ramblers held a 4-1 lead heading into the dressing room after 1 period.

The second period of action saw the Eagles resort to the "dump and bump" style of play that the Ramblers seem to have so much trouble with, as the Eagles pressed the Rambler defenders into rushing the puck, or giveaways that ultimately proved costly.

The Ramblers were guilty of failing to capitalize on a powerplay to open the second period, and this may have proved the catalyst that allowed the Innisfail team to stage a strong comeback, instead of the Ramblers taking control of the game.

The Eagles scored 3 goals to 1 for the Ramblers, and completely dominated play in the Ramblers end for most of the period. The team managed only 10 shots on goal, and 3 of those were on the powerplay as Gary Smith on assists from Darcy McGuire and Darren Dallas managed to slow down the Eagle onslaught although only temporarily.

The Eagles fired 20 shots at the Rambler netminder and many were of the dangerous variety as the Didsbury players were content to watch the opposition team stand in front of the net and bang away at will until scoring.

The team entered the dressing room leading 5-4 but fortunate to even be in the game as netminder Parslow was often great making save after save from the crease area.

The rest between periods seemed to do little to inspire or rejuvenate the Didsbury team as disaster struck on the very next powerplay with the Ramblers holding a 2 man advantage.

With less than a minute gone in the third period and the face-off in the Rambler end to the glove side of the Didsbury goalie, the Innisfail forward won the draw from Darren Dallas and skated untouched toward the Rambler net before firing a shot low on the stick side of a startled Ross Parslow to tie the game at 5-5.

The Innisfail team scored 3 more times in a span of 3 minutes including a powerplay goal and another shorthanded marker as the Rambler team suddenly found itself trailing 8-5 before a powerplay goal by Darcy McGuire brought them closer at 8-6 only to have the Eagles reply again to restore their margin, this again being shorthanded.

With little or no regard for defence or backchecking, the Rambler topsy turvy powerplay scored once more to close the lead to 9-7, however, they were unable to generate anymore offence on the balance of the 2 man advantage.

Three goals in a span of 51 seconds rounded out the scoring in the contest but unfortunately for the Ramblers, the Innisfail Eagles scored two of them.

The other Didsbury goal was scored by Brent Youngs with his second of the evening with Scott Fisher and Jason Krebs assisting to make the final score 11-8 in favor of Innisfail.

Shots on goal in the contest favored Innisfail 52-39 and in spite of giving up 11 goals, Rambler netminder Ross Parslow played very well, often finding himself alone in front of the net facing only opposition jerseys, and a traffic jam that would rival the best city intersection.

With the loss, the Rambler record falls to 5 and 7. While still managing to hold onto third place in league standings, however, with missed opportunities the distance between the first place Hobemma Oilers, and second place Innisfail is widening, and a turnaround is needed soon for the Ramblers to move up the standings.

The consensus lately is that the Rambler goalies should be nicknamed the Michelin Team as they seem to face more rubber than Firestone or Goodyear, with the defense looking more like spectators than players.

"We are struggling with some aspects of our game right now and the simple execution of taking the man seems to have been neglected in favor of generating offense," commented Coach McCoy.

"It is very easy to blame the defencemen," commented Manager Larry Tennant but we have to realize that wingers, and forwards are responsible for picking up their man, and if the opposition is standing around banging away at rebounds then the fault is with everyone."

"It would be very easy to panic and blame individuals or aspects of the game plan, however, the season is early and our schedule is in our favor the next 2 weeks so we will probably see an improvement with the team back winning."

The Ramblers have trimmed their roster with the deletion of Kevin McCulloch, Jim Guy, and Jason Krook and this will allow them to activate additional players should prospects become available or the need arise.

Next action for the Ramblers is Saturday, Jan. 16 as the Ramblers travel to Big Valley for their 4th meeting of the season with the Ramblers having won the last two contests.

The Ramblers are home on Thursday, Jan. 21 for a 8:30 faceoff against the Olds Elks and this should prove exciting with the teams having split their earlier matchups.

Grizzlys open new year with a blowout

When you've got 3 of the leagues top 10 scorers in your lineup and they're all at the top of their game, things usually go your way. And, that's exactly what happened on Saturday as the Olds Grizzlys thumped Bonnyville 10-3. Eric Fulton, Reg Lajeunesse and Darcy Dallas combined for 6 goals and 9 assists to help the Grizzlys move to within one point of the second place Calgary Canucks in the AJHL standings. Bonnyville actually jumped out to a 1-0 lead on a power play goal by Darren Trembecky but then it was all

Olds as they scored 5 straight to lead 5-1 after 1. The Pontiacs came out strong to start the second, scoring twice during a Ched Nelson major to make it 5-3, but that was as close as they could get as the Grizzlys simply outclassed Bonnyville in beating the Pontiacs for the second time this season. The Grizzlys record is now 20-13 while the Pontiacs drop to 10-24. Goal scorers: Olds' Eric Fulton 3, Reg Lajeunesse and Tyler Graham 2, Darcy Dallas, Josh Erdman, and Drew Ginter 1.

Bonnyville Harry York, Darren Trembecky, and Craig Fox.

Grizzlys' Notes: The games three stars were all from Olds. 1 Fulton, 2 Lajeunesse and 3 goalie Jan Perkins who kicked out 33 shots. The win was the Grizzlys fifth in 7 games as they seem to have shaken off a slump that saw them lose 6 of 8 in November. The game also marked the return of Lajeunesse and Geoff Liska, both back from knee injuries.

The next game will be on Wednesday, January 13 with St. Albert in Olds.

Grizzlys blow a big one

A not so funny thing happened to the Olds Grizzlys last Thursday night on their way to an Alberta Junior Hockey League win over the Calgary Canucks. They lost.

The Grizzlys jumped out to a 4-0 first period lead, but then eased off and let the Canucks claw their way back for a big 6-5 victory. Goals by Eric Fulton and one each by Chad Nelson, and Geoff Liska helped gain their lead, but before the end of the period, the Canucks had cut that lead to 4-2. Cam Cook made it a one goal game as he scored on the power play late in the second, then Darcy Dallas scored to give Olds a seemingly secure 5-3 lead, however, that was all the Grizzlys would get and the Canucks were just warming up. Burrows with his second and Darcy Christensen mid-way through the third tied it up, setting the stage for a wild ending.

For a while it looked like overtime was on the way but with a minute and a half left the Grizzlys got a too-many-men-on-the-ice penalty. It only took 26 seconds for the Canucks to capitalize, Christensen getting the winner, his second of the game. The loss was especially costly for the Grizzlys as they blew a chance to move into a second place tie with the Canucks.

Grizz Notes: The games 3 stars were, 1 - Darcy Christensen, Canucks; 2 - Gerry Burrows, Canucks; 3 - Tyler Graham, Grizzlys.

The Canucks held a 35-32 edge in shots. Eric Fultons 2 goals give him 37, just one away from Fort McMurray's Tony Frenette and his league leading 38. Fulton still leads in points with 77... Jason Wist of the Canucks, the league's leading goalie, was pulled by coach Carey Bracko after letting in the third Olds goal.

The Grizzlys home schedule is as follows: Wednesday, Jan. 13, 7:30 vs St. Albert; Tuesday, Jan. 19, 7:30 vs Calgary Royals; Tuesday, Jan. 26, 7:30 vs Calgary Canucks.

OBITUARIES

Leslie Herbert Goetjen, beloved husband of Shirley Goetjen passed away at Calgary Foothills Hospital on December 12, 1992 at the age of 56 years.

Les was born on July 13, 1936 at Didsbury, the only son of Herb and Ruth Goetjen. His childhood was spent on the family farm west of Didsbury and he went to school at Westcott and Didsbury. Les loved the country and he loved cattle. From the age of 9 he had his own cows and cared for them himself. A highlight in his farming career was the birth of triplet calves on March 9th, 1991.

At 19 he joined the Calgary Police Force where he served as police constable, detective and staff sergeant for 27½ years. During that time he received the Canadian Silver Jubilee Medal in recognition of his service with the force and to the community. After his distinguished police career and upon the completion of the required 25 years plus two and a half additional years Les retired to their ranch west of Didsbury so that he and his wife Shirley could realize his lifelong dream of full-time farming. Besides grain and hay they raised Registered Polled Herefords and kept a commercial beef herd.

Les was a member of the Canadian Legion, Branch 105, Olds, The Alberta Hereford Association Quarter Century Club, and the Retired Police Association. During the many years that he lived in Calgary he was very active with Triwood Community Center as a coach and Sports Director. He was a volunteer at the 88 Olympics through the Calgary Police Service.

Besides his loving wife Shirley, Les is survived by one son Morrie, three daughters, Heather, Laura-Lee (Adam, Daniel and Mark Bzdziuch), Leslie-Ann (John, Michelle, and Jennifer Kalman), one step-daughter Kristi (Amy and Cody Sheldon), two step-sons, Kirk Fyffe, Craig Fyffe (Krissy, Stephanie and Rachael). Les is also survived by his mother Ruth of Acme, mother-in-law Anne Smith of Ponoka, three sisters, Deloyce (Dr. Jacques Dumouchel), Marge (Lyle Johnson), and Elaine (Al Swan) as well as numerous nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins.

He was pre-deceased by his father Herbert John Goetjen in 1969.

Memorial services were held December 16, 1992 at the Sports Complex in Didsbury. Lutheran Pastor Eric Betsch officiating. Eulogy was delivered by Ron Tarrant (Calgary Police Superintendent ret). Staff Sergeant Vern Fielder, Calgary City Police was soloist. Calgary City Police Honor Guard was in attendance. "Amazing Grace" was piped by Bill Crabble of the City Police Highland Band.

Honorary Bearers were Bob Barrett, Jack Edwards, Linden Jacobsen, Richard Baudistel, Don Fisher, and John McLaws. Ushers were provided by members of the Retired Police Association.

WORRALL

Alfreda Angeline Worrall passed away in Didsbury, Alberta, on January 6, 1993 at the age of 92 years.

She was born on March 2, 1900 in Sheffield, Vermont, U.S.A. The eldest daughter of David & Maude Wood. They resided in Vermont a short time then lived in Pawtucket, Rhode Island until the family moved to Calgary in 1913.

After she left school she worked for Great North West Railways Telegraphs, which was later taken over by the Canadian National Railways.

Alfreda was employed with Woolworths and The Bay.

In 1923 she moved to Didsbury to work on the Garnet Tighe farm and later the Jim Shiels farm.

In January 1926 she married James Worrall at the West Calgary United Church. They moved to a farm 10 miles east of Didsbury where she resided until going into the Didsbury Nursing Home in July 1988.

She had been a member of the Mountain View W.I. since 1924 holding many positions over the years and receiving her Provincial Life Membership in 1965. She had been a steady exhibitor at the Womens Institute Conference and fairs in classes of knitting, sewing, crocheting and original rugs. This only ended a couple years ago. Mitts for the family and the Auxiliary Sale were her timely projects.

Alfreda and Jim celebrated their golden wedding in 1976.

She is survived by her daughter Jeanette (Lawrence) Hunter of Didsbury; 4 grandchildren: Donna (Ken) Rutherford, Calgary; Ron (Laurie) Hunter, Tom (Colleen) Hunter of Didsbury; Christine Hunter and fiance Hal Kinsella, Calgary; and seven great-grandchildren, Scott, Leanne and Mark Rutherford, Jared and Ryan Hunter, Caitlan and Jayme Hunter. She is also survived by one sister Inez Kirkpatrick of Calgary and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was predeceased by her husband Jim in July, 1981 at the age of 95, three half-brothers, Andrew (Florence) Wood, David (Sybil) Wood, Henry Wood, and one brother Malcolm (Eda) Wood.

Funeral services were held at the Didsbury Knox United Church, Monday, January 11 at 2 p.m. with Dr. Ken Jordan officiating. Interment followed in the Didsbury Cemetery. Lunch followed in the church hall by the Anglican ladies.

The honorary pallbearers were Jean & Harold Swanson, Gladys & Howard Miller, Millie & Ed McNeil, Shirley & Chris Randers, Margaret & Gerald Archer, Rita Trenholm, Alice McKay and Ann & David Smith.

Active pallbearers were Louis Shultz, Phillip Shultz, Lyle Shultz, Ed McKay, Claude Trenholm, and Robert Clarke.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be given to the Didsbury Nursing Home, S.T.A.R.S. Air Ambulance or charity of one's choice.

Obituary

NELSON

Mr. Teddy Ross "Ted" Nelson of Red Deer passed away peacefully at his home on December 23, 1992 at the age of 46 years.

Ted was born on July 20, 1946, youngest son of Lowell and Lizzie Nelson of Trochu. Ted was raised on the family farm west of Rowley and received his education at Anthill, Rowley, Morrin and Drumheller Vocational School. Ted then took his basic recruit training for the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, at Regina. After completing his training, Ted was posted at Kitimat, Prince Rupert and Golden, B.C. While at Prince George, Ted was promoted to Corporal and later transferred to Didsbury where he was stationed for 10 years. His most recent promotion was to Sergeant of the Red Deer City Traffic Section. In 1967, Ted was married to Valerie Jacobson, and to this union was born a son, Jayson. Ted gave many hours of his time coaching baseball and hockey teams, and was also a Cub leader at Didsbury. On New Year's Day, 1992, Ted married Jessie Baldwin of Didsbury.

As a young lad, Ted enjoyed fishing at the Starland Dam with his dad and brothers and in recent years enjoyed fishing at Pine Lake where he and Jessie enjoyed their favorite summer vacation home. Ted and Jessie have many happy memories of family and friends in their brief time together.

Ted leaves to mourn his beloved wife, Jessie; his son, Jayson of Red Deer; his two stepdaughters, Jacqueline of Didsbury and Shannon of Calgary; also his mother, Mrs. Lizzie Nelson of Trochu; two brothers, Bob (Audrey) Nelson and Jim (Judy) Nelson, all of Rumsey; three sisters, Lorna (Neil) Sandberg of Calgary, Pat (Ken) Hatt of Rumsey and Wanda (Lyle) Peterson of Trochu; brothers-in-law, Jim (Pearl) Ryckman of Edmonton and Albert (Judy) Ryckman of Stettler; and numerous aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews.

The greatest joys in Ted's life were his only son Jayson, who he was very proud of, and his loving wife, and best friend, Jessie. Ted was predeceased by his father Lowell in 1985.

Funeral services were held at the Gaetz Memorial United Church, 4758 Ross Street, Red Deer, on Monday, December 28, 1992 at 1 p.m. with Rev. Bill Johnston officiating.

Ted requested that in lieu of flowers, memorial tributes may be made to the Central Alberta Cancer Centre, Red Deer Regional Hospital, Postal Bag 5030, Red Deer, STARS, Box 570, Calgary, T2E 8M7, or to the charity of the donor's choice.

The pallbearers were Insp. Roy Beaton, Cpl. Dave Hample, Cst. Roger Morrow, Cst. Cliff

Brennan, Cst. Dave Hall and Cst. Carol Oswald.

Arrangements in care of Eventide Funeral Chapels, 4820-45th Street, Red Deer, Alberta.

WHAT ARE WE DOING?

We are implementing a Pre-Authorized Tax Installment Payment Plan.

WHY?

We are trying to simplify your budgeting, for the payment of your property and local improvement taxes, by allowing you to make payments in twelve installments from January 15th to December 15th. There is no worry about paying all your taxes by June 30th of each year or missing a payment because of vacation, out of town on business or because of illness.

HOW DOES THE PLAN WORK?

1. The Plan runs from January to December of each year.
2. Come into the Town Office and make arrangements to be registered on the Plan prior to January 15th of each year.
3. Deposit with the Town of Didsbury twelve (12) post-dated cheques, dated the 15th of each month from January to December, in twelve equal installments based on your previous years taxes. We send you a receipt for each payment made.
4. You will receive a tax notice as in previous years. The difference between the total taxes for the year and the total payments under the Pre-Authorized Tax Installment Payment Plan will be billed on the Tax notice or refunded in the form of a cheque from the Town. Any difference is payable within 30 days of the mailing of the tax notice.

EXAMPLE

Per Tax Notice - 1993 Actual Taxes

$1,250.00

By Pre-Authorized Payments at $100.00 per month

$1,200.00

Difference Payable within 30 days

$ 50.00

PENALTIES?

Yes—if one of your payments is in default, 1.5% penalty will be added to your account on the first day of default and on the first day of each calendar month in which the default continues. If payment is in default after the end of the year, the normal 10% penalty will be added to the account for all arrears.

ELIGIBILITY?

To be eligible to register for the plan in each year, all tax arrears must be paid. Senior citizens must be eligible for the grant under the Alberta Property Tax Reduction Benefit Plan to receive a reduction in the pre-authorized payment plan and must sign the Homeowner Grant Claim form and return it to the Town Office within 20 days of receiving the tax notice.

NEED ADDITIONAL INFORMATION?

Contact: E.M. Storey or E. Dumont at the Town Office at 335-3391.

REMEMBER!

To be eligible for the plan in any given year, you must register at the Town Office prior to January 15th.

THERE'S NO ALTERNATIVE TO CONCRETE

Concrete is the basement building material with all the advantages

It's a proven performer. Rugged, tough, durable. A concrete basement will never burn or rot and concrete is safe. Quality controlled concrete needs no toxic chemicals which may be hazardous to building occupants.

Concrete is an energy-wise choice.
A concrete basement needs little heat or air conditioning. And concrete walls are easily insulated.

Economically concrete is a great investment. A concrete basement will add years of life to the foundation and comparable dollars to the resale value of your building.

Add up the advantages. There's simply no alternative to quality controlled concrete. The best basement building material.

Quality Doesn't Cost
- It Pays!

Cards of Thanks

The families of Cyril Jensen, Tyson Van Tighem and Wes Walroth would like to express our sincere thanks to the Carstairs Volunteer Fire Dept., the Paramedics and everyone who helped at the scene of the accident. Also to Drs. Qureshi, Stevens and Benton and the nursing staff at the Didsbury Hospital for the quick and efficient help that they provided for our sons. Also a special thanks to STARS Air Ambulance. Our sons are alive today because of the combined efforts of all these people. Thank you again. 37-1tc

We wish to acknowledge the caring concern shown during our recent bereavement. The cards, flowers, food and memorial donations were much appreciated.

Helen Clayton, Charlotte Rosenke, Katharine McFarquhar and families 37-1tp

Cards of Thanks

The family of Carl Meyer would like to extend their sincere thanks to friends and relatives for their expression of sympathy, support and prayers in the loss of our dear husband, father and grandfather. To those of you who phoned, sent cards, flowers, baking, meals and memorial donations, your concern was deeply appreciated.

Thank you to Rev. Eric Betsch for his words of comfort and the service, Roberta Lentz organist, and Rev. Larry Lentz for the eulogy. A special thanks to Dr. Graff and the Olds Hospital staff, Mt. View Ambulance attendants, and Ken Sherick and staff at Mt. View Funeral Chapel for their care and concern.

The kindnesses you have expressed to us in this time of sorrow will always be remembered.

Thank you very much from The Meyer Family, Robena, Jack & Ruby & family; Donald & Marilyn & family; Allen & Linda & family 37-1tc

We, the family of Elsie Bennett, wish to express our sincere thanks to all the staff of the Didsbury Nursing Home for the loving care given to Elsie during her years spent there, especially her last painful days. Your love and concern is deeply appreciated.

To all who made charitable donations in her memory, the United Church U.C.W. for the lunch. Those who sent cards of sympathy and concern.

A warm thank you to Rev. Bruce McIntyre for the very personal and sincere tribute to Elsie.

Gordon & Betty Marsh, Maxine, Elaine, Murray, Alan & Bessie Marsh, Robert, Faye, Betty, Jim 37-1tp

Relatives, Friends and Neighbors:

Happy New Year and thanks to all who so kindly helped me this past year, especially the "Anderson boys."

Unfortunately, my cards were going to be late, so I choose instead to donate to something we may all enjoy, B.O.P. All the best in 1993.

Iona Sheils 37-1tp

The Chanthavong Family would like to thank the Staff of MVHCC, Pastor Bruce Wiebe, the Berghal Mennonite Church, friends, relatives and those who visited our father while he was in the hospital.

Thank you also to those who have helped us through our time of sorrow with cards, bakings, flowers, etc. 37-1tp

Many thanks to Dr. Haigh and staff at Foothills Hospital ICU 104 for the loving care given Les during the 16 days prior to his passing and to the Westcott and Jackson Women's Institutes for preparing and serving lunch at the complex and for flowers, food, cards, letters and memorial tributes to S.T.A.R.S.

"I know you're sad but please don't cry."

I am not gone, I did not die.
I'm in the golden waving grain,
The scent of earth in a summer rain,
A healthy calf on its first wild run,
Green rows of rye under autumn sun,
Remember me, but please don't cry,
While I'm in your heart I did not die."
Shirley Goetjen & family 37-1tc

Let's talk recyclingPart 5*By the Didsbury Lions Recycling Committee

Before discussing this week's key word we should say something about preparation. Recycling is not garbage collection but a conscious effort by all our partners to remove from our waste those materials that can be reused. The only materials that can be reused are clean materials. This means that newspaper and cardboard must be brought to the recycling centre clean—it must not have been used to clean or wrap other materials. Glass jars, milk jugs, plastic containers, and (if we can recycle them) tin cans must be cleaned so that there is no food in them. If this is not done, then otherwise valuable recycling materials become garbage and cannot be used. So our partners are asked to CLEAN YOUR CONTAINERS FIRST AND KEEP PAPER AND CARDBOARD CLEAN.

When our materials are clean they are valuable—so let us discuss Profit. The Recycling Centre is designed as a business. It will be managed, supervised and audited like any other business in Didsbury—and it must make a profit. But in our case all profits will be returned to the town in various ways.

First the town will save money by removing as much of the recyclable material as we can from our garbage. There will be less garbage to haul to the dump (saving money) and Didsbury will be able to delay looking for more dump space for as much as three years, saving more money. These savings can be used for other municipal programs.

When our materials are sold, the earned money will be used within Didsbury to recreational organizations and other social programs. But how much can we save? Studies have shown that for a town, the size of Didsbury, each of us will discard about 617 kg of garbage a year—or about 2,000 tonnes total! That is a lot of garbage and very little space to put it. The federal and provincial governments want us to reduce our garbage by 50% by the year 2000 and we can do it with a well-planned recycling program. So this will be our target as well.

But we can save and earn money at the same time. Today, there is available in Didsbury about 800-900 tonnes of material. From this we could earn for our community about $30,000 - $35,000! And the savings for the town through other services would be about the same. Even if half of our households brought in half of their recyclable materials we could still save a lot of money.

And what would it cost us? Very little actually—about $10,000. But to keep cost down, we need to have as much volunteer labor as possible. The more people who come to help, the less work we all need to do. We estimate that if we get enough volunteers (like every other community gets) a person or group would only need to work for 1 week every year! If we all support our recycling center this way, we will all profit—the town will save money because there is less garbage to process; and our community will benefit from all the materials we can send to market.

Next week we will discuss our progress to date.

OBITUARIESBIRD

Gwendolyn Ellen Mary Bird, beloved wife of Doug, passed away on December 23, 1992 at the age of 77 years at the Mountain View Health Care Centre in Didsbury. Gwen, the daughter of Grace and Cecil Fry, was born June 14, 1915 in Bottrel, Alberta.

Gwen grew up west of Cremona, the second of five children. She attended Atkins School where she was the first student to be awarded the R.B. Bennett medal for general academic proficiency. Later, she attended High School at the old cheese factory in Cremona. After graduating, Gwen worked for various families in the Cremona area until she came to work for her future-in-laws at Garfield. She married Douglas Bird at her parents' farm on November 22, 1938 and together they took over the Garfield Store in 1940. The store was also the post office for 43 families in the district. At times, poor roads meant the mail truck was late and it seemed like half the community would sit in the store and visit as they waited. This carried on throughout Gwen's life, as no one ever left the farm without a cup of tea and a visit.

When Doug went to join the army in World War II, Gwen stayed home and was kept very busy looking after the store, sorting mail, filling out ration books, selling fuel and Victory Bonds, and raising their children. In 1946, they sold the store and began their dairying operation. Gwen was a hard worker and combined raising a family with all of the extra work that milking cows requires. Gwen said that a dairyman's wife should be able to be out in the barn and inside the house at the same time.

After her family, Gwen's special love was writing—poems, skits, stories and even songs. Local showers, anniversaries, weddings and variety shows weren't complete without one of her special and often humorous contributions. Her other soft spot was reserved for her garden and her animals—especially her dogs, cats and observing the wildlife that she could see from her window.

She is survived by Doug, her husband of 54 years and their three children Don (Maxine) Bird of Rocky Mountain House, Marjorie (Don) McKinnon of Carstairs and Jeanette (Larry) Umbach of Carstairs. She is also survived by eight grandchildren:

Steven (Rebecca) Bird, Carmen (Raymond) Lee, Shelley Bird, Carolyn (Cory) Massel, Dennis and Mark McKinnon, Leah and Michael Umbach.

Gwen also leaves one great-granddaughter Hawley Massel and two brothers, Jack Fry of Cremona, and Don Fry of Oliver, B.C. She was predeceased by her sisters Gladys and Joyce.

Pallbearers were Steven Bird, Dennis McKinnon, Mark McKinnon, Michael Umbach, Cory Massel and Raymond Lee.

Honorary pallbearers were special friends: Nellie Davies, Edith Dunphy, Betty Hughes, Ethel Hunley, Gladys McInnis, Dorothy Montgomery, and Helen Whitlow.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday, December 30, 1992 at 2 p.m. from the Cremona Congregational Church with Rev. Frank Cummins officiating. Cremation.

If friends desire, memorial donations may be given to the Cremona Congregational Church Building Fund, c/o Mrs. C. Van Arnem, R.R. 2, Carstairs, Alberta, T0M 0N0, or to the charity of one's choice.

BENNETT

On Wednesday, December 16, 1992, Mrs. Elsie Mary Bennett of Carstairs passed away peacefully in the Mountain View Health Care Centre (Long Term Care), Didsbury, at the age of 79 years.

Survived by her brothers, Gordon (Betty), Alan (Bessie), and sister-in-law Ann Marsh, numerous nieces, nephews and a host of good friends.

She was predeceased by her husband Leo Arthur Bennett in 1975, her parents Kate & Fred Marsh, and brother Arthur in 1990.

Elsie lived all her life in the Carstairs district. She married Lee in 1934. Elsie and Lee farmed for 30 odd years then changed to town life.

Elsie has suffered with arthritis for many years, slowly crippling her to the point of total care. During the past four years she has been in the long term care unit of the Mountain View Health Care Centre, Didsbury, Alberta, where she spread her special brand of humor and caring for others, up to the time of her passing.

Elsie enjoyed a game of crib, flowers, home cooking and people. She will be sadly missed by her family and friends and all who knew her.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday, December 19, 1992 at 1:30 p.m. at the Carstairs United Church, Carstairs with Rev. Bruce McIntyre officiating. Interment was in the Carstairs Cemetery, Carstairs.

Pallbearers were Ross Bennett, Tom Bennett, Ned Tanton, Murray Marsh, Ken Marsh, and Bob Marsh.

Arrangements were in the

CrimeStoppers

The Central Alberta CrimeStoppers Program began in 1984 and is a cooperative effort between the public, the media and the police of Central Alberta.

Last year alone we received 254 tips leading to 60 arrests and the recovery of $195,000 of drugs, weapons, and stolen property as well as helping to solve a $90,000 arson.

Also this past year the program paid approximately $13,000 in award money however many people who phoned in tips were not interested in award money and that's very commendable. The award money for CrimeStoppers is all raised through fundraising efforts and tax deductible donations from businesses and concerned citizens. Thank you Central Alberta for making 1992 one of our most successful years.

If you have any information on any unsolved crime, call CrimeStoppers now at 340-TIPS, that's 340-8477 or call toll free at 1-800-661-TIPS. The calls to CrimeStoppers are not traced or recorded and you never have to give your name or testify in court. CrimeStoppers will pay up to $2,000 for information leading to the arrest of suspects in any unsolved crime. CrimeStoppers serves all of Central Alberta.

Model airplane meeting planned

The Didsbury R/C Fun Flyers model airplane club will be holding an informal public information evening on Thursday, January 28, 1993 at the Didsbury Train Station, on the main street of Didsbury, from 7:00 p.m. until 10:00 p.m. The club will have several model airplanes on display and club members will be present to answer questions about the various aspects of the hobby. We encourage anyone who is interested to come out for the evening.

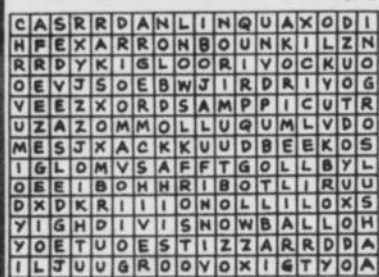

For further information please call Grant Hemming at 335-3909. Thank you in advance for your assistance. Hope to see you there.

JANUARY WORDS

THERE ARE EIGHT WORDS HIDDEN IN THIS GRID WHICH COULD BE CONNECTED WITH A COLD JANUARY. CAN YOU FIND THEM?

ANSWER:

SNOWBALL, FROST, ICE, SLEDGE, SHIVER, FREEZE, SLUSH, SLEDGE.

DID YOU KNOW?

DAYS WHEN IMPORTANT EVENTS OCCUR ARE SOMETIMES CALLED "RED LETTER DAYS." THIS IS BECAUSE SPECIAL DAYS USED TO BE MARKED IN RED ON CHURCH CALENDARS. EVEN TODAY, BANK HOLIDAYS ARE OFTEN MARKED IN RED ON CALENDARS.

IN FLORIDA, A MAN TRAINED HIS PET SQUIRREL TO WATER-SKI! THE SQUIRREL WAS TOWED BY A REMOTE-CONTROLLED BOAT AT ABOUT 12 MILES PER HOUR!

Obscure January trivia

• January 7, 1963: Postage on a first class letter went up all the way to five cents!

• January 12, 1773: The first museum in America was organized in Charleston, North Carolina.

• January 13, 1863: Thomas Crapper pioneered the one-piece pedestal flushing toilet.

• January 15, 1870: The donkey as a Democratic party symbol was seen for the first time.

• January 21, 1908: Women in New York City who wished to smoke in public probably changed their minds. On that day, it was made a criminal offense — punishable by $5 to $25 in fines, and up to ten days in jail.

• January 24, 1848: James Marshall discovered gold near Calona, Cal., and the California gold rush began.

What eventually happened to Marshall? He died an alcoholic — and broke.

• People living in England many years ago called January Wulf-Monath or "Wolf Month" because hungry wolves usually came into the villages at this time of year.

• January 28, 1547: England's King Henry VIII died. He was succeeded by Edward VI, his 9-year-old son!

• January 31, 1874: Jesse James and his gang robbed a train's safe in Missouri.

Then James gave the engineers a press release (written by James), in which he gave a detailed account of the robbery! He then instructed the men to forward the information to the newspapers!

• We all know that there is a jewel connected with each month of the year. But there is also a flower and color.

January's jewel (birthstone) is garnet (deep red). It stands for consistency.

There are two lucky flowers also associated with this month: Carnations and snowdrops.

And, what are your favorite colors supposed to be if this is your birthday month? Black and white.
